

23 April 1963

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, CI/OA

SUBJECT : Gregoir Tarasovich PANCZUK
C-103069

1. The following completes field traces on Subject.

a. OFFPA-69984, 13 March 1963.

No Station traces on Subject ☐ ☐

b. OEBA-17635, 11 September 1962.

There are no ☐ ☐ traces on Subject.

2. The situation concerning contact with Subject has changed somewhat since the return of AECASSOWARY/29 to the United States in January of this year. Subject will now have contact with AECASSOWARY/29 by letter and only in the event he has something of operational interest to report. Before AECASSOWARY/29's departure from Belgium, Subject had reported to him about a contact he had established with two Soviet exchange students at the university which he is attending, and AECASSOWARY/29 had instructed him to develop a closer friendship with the Soviet students. The contact between Subject and two students has not developed beyond that point to date. If it does, it may be that ☐ ☐ may want to put an Agency staff officer in touch with Subject. In the event this situation should develop, appropriate clearance for such contact with Subject will be requested.

3. Please contact ☐ ☐ in room 5B0003, or on extension 7168, if you need any additional information concerning this request.
